Q-Roll Golf Shipping its New Q-Roll Classics™ Line of Putters

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. — Q-Roll Golf Company has started shipping its highly-anticipated Q-Roll Classics™ Putter collection, featuring seven of the most popular putter designs in history, updated with Q-Roll Golf's patented Radius Face™ technology, to golf retail stores around the country, including Edwin Watts Golf Shops. The Q-Roll Classics Putters will begin appearing this week on the Edwin Watts Golf Shops web site (www.edwinwatts.com) and will be featured in next month's Edwin Watts Golf Shops catalog.

"Q-Roll Golf's relationship with a retailer as widely respected as Edwin Watts Golf is a significant event in the life of our young company," said Q-Roll President Andrew Tarlow.

"We really believe Q-Roll's Radius Face technology works and offers our customers of all playing skills another quality option," said Kerry Kabase, director of sales at Edwin Watts Golf. "The Classics line in particular appeals to those better players who like the more traditional look of a putter they grew up playing with."

Q-Roll Golf's Radius Face™ putters are designed to strike the golf ball above its equator producing immediate topspin and a true, more accurate forward roll. Each Q-Roll Classics™ one-piece putter is milled in the USA from a brass/nickel alloy primarily used in Italy for ultra luxury plumbing fixtures. The brass/nickel alloy has the same weight as 303 stainless steel, but with a durometer that is approximately 24% softer.

The Q-Roll Classics™ Putters Line:

CLASSIC I FW	Forward press hosel, perimeter weighted putter
CLASSIC II	Face-balanced blade with a double bend shaft
CLASSIC III	Mallet style with face balance and perimeter weighting
CLASSIC IV	Traditional mallet, face-balanced

CLASSIC V	Ironmaster/Arnold Palmer style
CLASSIC VI	Heel shaft, flange blade
CLASSIC VII	Heel shaft, long blade

The seven Q-Roll Classics™ models feature smooth taper shafts on double bends and step on straight shafts. Each model is offered in lengths of 33, 34 and 35 inches in the right hand version. Two models—the Classic I FW and Classic III—are offered in left-hand lengths of 34 and 35 inches. All Q-Roll Classics Putters feature Winn® AVS grips with a fine, cross-stitch design.

Each Q-Roll Classics Putter carries a suggested retail price of $199.⁹⁹
